They learned that Mr. Cleveland would make no promises, or anything of the sort, to any of them, or to, or for, any others through them; that he could read the success of the ticket in this state as a matter of much more importance to them than to him; that he repelled the idea that his idea was questionable by them or doubtable by any one; that they knew he was aware who had been his friends before nomination, and he would know who had and who had not been his friends after election; that he would have no friends to reward on account of Tennessee Conference-First Bound Kelty 85, Malcolm Whitfield 84, An- friendship, and no former opponents to punish on account of former opposition; that he would go to election or defeat equally free, and absolutely uncommit-ted, but that if the Democratic people and ticket were beaten in this state by the Democratic machine, another Dem ocratic organization was ready to take its place at once, and that in such case the youngest man present would not live long enough to see that machine sufficiently strong to win or to betray : cause thereafter, or one of their number

SPLIT IN TWAIN.

A Factional Fight in The National Alliance.

The Third Partyism Tendency of The Order Will Likely Cause its Collapse

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 18. - The past week has been one of bustle in Mem? phis, and the work is not completed yet. The excitement over the election had hardly abated when people gathered from various States surrounding to take part in the great ratification meeting. Since then the city has been kept astir with people attending the various organizations that have been in session here during he week.

The Tri-State Medical Association of Tennessee, Arkansas and Mississippi has been in session several days here and adjourned last night. This meeting was largely attended by practitioners from the various States mentioned and the proceedings were very interesting to the public.

The International Road Congress convened the first of the week and adjourned Wednesday, after having an interesting meeting.

The Association for the Advancement of Woman will adjourn to-day, after holding an executive session.

The greatest, however, of all the meetings of the week is that of the National Farmers Alliance and Industrial Union. This meeting convened Tuesday and will remain in session several days yet. There are many prominent people attending this meeting, among whom may be mentioned Jere Simpson, of Kansas; Senator Vanwick, of Nebraska; Dr. C. W. Macune, of Washington City, editor of the National Economist. Ben Terrell, of Texas; Mrs. Lease, of Kansas, and T. V. Pow-

Considerable dissension has arisen among members on account of the organization. The strang tone towards Third partyism has caused much disaffection among Democratic members, and the indications are that many will withdraw.

The fight is between the Loucks and Macune factions for the supremacy, and this fight may cause the collapse of the order. J. Tillmen admits that he aided all he could he the election of Cleveland, and H. C. Taubenec is here to get his scalp. He got it yesterday, for Tillman was had a running sore on his leg of eight virtually legislated out of office. Years standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Taubenec is moving heaven and earth to have a plank inserted in the sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large Feversores platform calling on all members to support the Third party movement. and one box of Bucklen's Arnica Macune's candidacy for the presidency, despite Taubenee's dark lantern campaign against him, is being pushed by his followers. The northwest contingent swear in case of Macune's election they will bolt. Violent scenes take place at almost every session and there is no telling where the fight will end. The opposition openly charge that Macune and Tillman got something more than thanks for their part in the national campaign, and they say it came from the National Democratic Committee. There will be three secsions of the order to-day.
